

Spanish classes

Every Wednesday at 15:30 we have Spanish classes at school.

At the beginning I only had two students, and they learned many things!

We started with the basic material and now they know so much more!

Recently, there are four more students who have joined us, some of them knew a little Spanish so they are very interested in learning more.

We are a nice class and we work very hard together 😊

Maria and her student