

On November 10, we went with the classes to the Puppet Theater to see the Butterfly performance. Children from grades 2-8 of the primary school, together with volunteers Filipa and Eva, could experience emotions related to fears and night terrors faced by children. The girls supported our children and thanks to the multilingual character of the trip, everyone could practice foreign languages.