

Christmas party at AULA

On December 15th, our foundation held a big Christmas party with people from all schools in the “Aula”, a big fancy room with an organ we had never seen before.

There were two presenters (one teacher and one student from the Lyceum) and quite a few performances including songs from the children of the PNSP and teachers, a guitar song from students from the highschool and a presentation held by us about Christmas traditions in our countries.

